

FIFTH THIRD BANK

Hold Funds Policy and Access to Funds Disclosure

Why Did We Create This Document?

The Bank Act requires Canadian chartered banks and authorized foreign banks in Canada to inform customers of its Hold Funds Policy in clear and plain language. To comply with Canadian law, Fifth Third Bank, National Association, (“Fifth Third Bank”), Canada Branch, an authorized foreign bank branch under the Bank Act, has created this Access to Funds Disclosure document explaining its Hold Funds Policy and how to contact us if you have any questions, complaints or concerns.

Hold Funds Policy

Funds for cheques and other Instruments deposited to an Account may not be accessible immediately. The length of the hold period can vary depending on the location of the issuing financial institution.

In general, the length of the hold period is:

- (i) five (5) business days, or any shorter period required by law, for cheques and other Instruments in Canadian or US currency drawn on a Canadian branch of a Canadian financial institution;
- (ii) fifteen (15) business days for cheques and other Instruments drawn on a US financial institution; and
- (iii) twenty-five (25) business days for cheques and other Instruments drawn on a foreign financial institution other than in the US.

After the hold period, the customer may access the funds in the normal course. However, Fifth Third Bank, Canada Branch’s release of funds to the customer does not mean that the cheque or other Instrument cannot be returned.

If the cheque or other Instrument is returned after the hold period, Fifth Third Bank, Canada Branch may charge the amount of the cheque or such other Instrument to the Account. For these purposes, the term “business day” means regular weekdays only and excludes Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays under Applicable Laws.
