

Fifth Third Bank is required to obtain information on trust accounts to ensure accurate and effective reporting of FDIC (Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation) coverage liability, in the event it is required.

What you need to know

The fiduciary account holders or account trustees have the responsibility to supply information about the account owners and beneficiaries. This information is used to determine the appropriate amount of FDIC coverage and payment to the account owners and beneficiaries. Please note: If you do not supply the proper beneficial ownership information, you may experience a delay in the receipt of your insured deposit funds in the event FDIC insurance coverage must be applied.

What you need to do

Please call us at 800-972-3030 and have the following information ready:

- Grantor's information - e.g., address and Social Security number
- Trust Tax Identification Number (TIN), if applicable
- Number of beneficiaries
- Name of each beneficiary and corresponding information, e.g., address and Social Security number

By submitting this information, you are certifying, to the best of your knowledge, that the information is accurate.

For additional information

For more information on Recordkeeping for Timely Deposit Insurance Determination under Rule 12 CFR 370, please visit the FDIC's website at www.fdic.gov.

Please submit any questions to us at FDICHelp@53.com.

Thank you.